North Bay, ON: Two local paramedics with the District on Nipissing Social Services Administration Board (DNSSAB) will receive exemplary service medals at an awards gala Thursday, September 28. This year's presentations will be held in conjunction with the Ontario Association of Paramedic Chiefs (OAPC) Fall Symposium, at the Blue Mountain Resort and Conference Center.

Eric Bolduc and Tanya Bouchard are receiving the Governor General's Emergency Medical Service Exemplary Service Medal. They are among only 110 in Ontario to receive the medal this year.

"The DNSSAB congratulates Eric and Tanya in receiving this recognition and for their 20 plus years of service, which speaks to the quality professionals working with the DNSSAB Paramedic Services," says DNSSAB Chair, Mark King.

Background on the Award

The Governor General of Canada website states that "the Emergency Medical Services Exemplary Service Medal, created on July 7, 1994, recognizes professionals in the provision of pre-hospital emergency medical services to the public, who have performed their duties in an exemplary manner, characterized by good conduct, industry and efficiency."
